ART 101 Lightroom and Photoshop Basics

This course provides fundamental skills in Adobe Lightroom and Photoshop that artists, gallery personnel, photographers, and fashion industry workers need to manage image and video files for print and web purposes. Topics include file import from cameras and devices, file format, file size, and file management. It also covers Photoshop editing of image files, video files, and Photoshop processing workflows. Drawing in Adobe Photoshop using brushes and layers is introduced.

ART 300 Drawing and Composition I

This course introduces observational drawing and composition. It emphasizes the ability to perceive and define both positive and negative shapes, contour, volume, space and value using a variety of drawing media and subject matter. It focuses on the clarity of observational skills and the ability to translate three-dimensional form and space into two-dimensional drawings. Both linear and atmospheric perspective will be studied and applied to drawings. The development of dynamic compositions will be studied through the various arrangements of subject matter. Field trips may be required.

ART 302 Drawing and Composition II

This course further develops the skills and concepts introduced in ART 300. It covers the relationships between formal elements such as line, shape, color, texture, value, perspective, and spatial relationships. It emphasizes the creative use of materials. It also includes critiques of student, historical, and contemporary works of art. Field trips may be required.

ART 304 Figure Drawing I

This course introduces and explores the human structure based on the history and traditions of the human figure in art. Skills are developed by critically analyzing, drawing, and composing the undraped figure in a representational manner from direct observation. A variety of media are introduced in the exploration of the human form. Field trips may be required.

ART 305 Figure Drawing II

This course continues the study of the human figure in art as begun in ART 304. The pursuit of more complex strategies and skills are developed by critically analyzing, drawing, and composing the undraped figure. The use of color tools and the development of personal style are emphasized. Field trips may be required.

ART 306 Facial Expression and Anatomy

This course covers human facial expression and anatomy using live models, anatomical references, and imagination. Issues of expression as it relates to skeletal and muscular anatomy are addressed through a series of projects. This course is not open to students who have taken ARTNM 320.
ART 312 Portrait Drawing

This course introduces the study of the human image in portraiture. Emphasis is on developing the skills needed to portray specific individuals rather than a generalized image of people. Included are the history and traditions of portraiture, the use of color media, and the development of personal style. Field trips may be required.

ART 314 Introduction to Illustration

This course is a survey of the history of illustration, defining areas of specialization and the illustrator's role in visual communication. The appropriate use of materials, tools and methods is evaluated. Illustration is analyzed as a method of visual problem solving through a series of projects with varied applications. This course is not open to students who have taken ARTNM 370.

ART 317 Character Design

This course introduces the visual development of characters based on archetypal patterns. Students will consider backstory, personality, and physical attributes. Fundamental drawing skills such as shape, form, anatomical structure, and motion will be included. Both digital and traditional media are applied. It also covers the graphical development of characters for animation, games, comics, graphic novels, children's books, and illustrated novels. It is not open to students who have completed ARTNM 372.

ART 320 Design: Fundamentals

This course focuses on the fundamentals of design, establishing a foundation for intermediate and advanced art courses as well as developing a visual and verbal vocabulary essential to understanding and appreciating art and design esthetics. Design principles are applied through a series of studio projects that are derived from the study of both historical schools of art as well as contemporary theory. The elements of line, shape, form, spatial relationships, value, and color are analyzed in concert with their use by artists throughout history. Projects utilize a wide range of tools, media, and presentation techniques. This course is not open to students who have completed ARTNM 310.

ART 323 Design: Color Theory

This course studies the principles, theories, and application of additive and subtractive color in two dimensions. Included is the use of color systems found in major historical and contemporary artistic styles. A portfolio of design projects in applied color systems is required. Field trips may be required.

ART 324 Collage and Assemblage

This course investigates the creation of artworks using the technique of collage and assemblage (the process of assembling and adhering diverse materials and found objects onto another surface). The history of collage and assemblage and basic design theories are introduced. Development of a personal visual style is encouraged. Field trips may be required.

ART 327 Painting I
This course introduces basic techniques and materials of painting. It includes the survey of historical and contemporary development of painting with emphasis on perceptual and technical skills, such as, color theory, paint mixing and technique, and creative responses to materials and subject matter. Field trips may be required.

ART 328 Painting II

- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
- Course Family: Painting (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009)
- Prerequisite: ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
- Transferable: CSU, UC
- Catalog Date: June 1, 2020

This course expands on the basic painting techniques and materials introduced in ART 327. It encourages the development of artistic style and general and specific criticism found in the history of painting. Field trips may be required.

ART 329 Painting III

- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB

- Prerequisite: ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
- Transferable: CSU, UC
- Catalog Date: June 1, 2020

This course further develops the skills and concepts introduced in ART 327. Included is the survey of historical and contemporary styles in painting as this pertains to the development of individual style and self expression. Topics may include; post-modern expression, such as image and text; mixed-media; and combining varied styles and techniques within a single artwork. Field trips may be required.

ART 330 Mural Painting

- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
- Prerequisite: ART 300 or 320 with a grade of "C" or better
- Advisory: ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
- Transferable: CSU, UC
- Catalog Date: June 1, 2020

This course provides a survey of mural painting as a public art form. It introduces the historical use of mural painting and examines the process of creating a mural painting by analyzing a site, researching, planning, and executing murals in public spaces, and working collaboratively with others. Field trips may be required to execute the work on location.

ART 336 Watercolor Painting

- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
- Prerequisite: ART 300 or 320 with a grade of "C" or better
- Transferable: CSU, UC
- Catalog Date: June 1, 2020

This course introduces painting with aqueous media and techniques, including watercolor, gouache, and acrylic. It emphasizes historical and contemporary development, technical skill, color relationship(s), and self-expression using aqueous media in painting. Different artists and topics are covered each semester. Field trips may be required.

ART 337 Intermediate Watercolor Painting

- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
- Prerequisite: ART 336 with a grade of "C" or better
- Transferable: CSU, UC
- Catalog Date: June 1, 2020

This course continues the study of the aqueous medium in painting begun in ART 336. More complex methods, concepts, varying approaches, and techniques using the aqueous medium are developed. Personal style is emphasized. Field trips may be required.

ART 339 Integrating Digital Media with Traditional Media I

- Same As: ARTNM 331
- Units: 3
- Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
- Prerequisite: None
- Transferable: CSU
- General Education: AA/AS Area I
