

Art

Overview

This degree provides a foundation in art principles and practices and is designed for those interested in transferring to a four-year college or university, and for someone interested in furthering his/her visual arts skills. Course work includes study in art history and a wide range of 2-D and 3-D studio practice courses. 2-D refers to drawing, painting, design, and photography; 3-D refers to ceramics, jewelry, and sculpture.

The American River College Art Department offers a wide variety of art classes including ceramics, alternative process photography, figure drawing, portrait drawing, anatomy of facial expressions, black smithing, traditional and non traditional sculpture, art gallery operations and portfolio building, printmaking, color theory and materials and techniques. The Kaneko Gallery on campus hosts several different exhibitions a year and ends each spring semester with its annual student competition exhibition. America River College also has a vast Permanent Art Collection (https://sites.google.com/apps.losrios.edu/arc-design-hub-public-files/campus-art/outdoor-art?authuser=0) which includes artists such as Andy Warhol, Jack Ogden, Gary Pruner, Luther Gerlach and Ruby Chacon.

Art (ART) Courses

ART 101 Lightroom and Photoshop Basics

Units:	0.5
Hours:	27 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	None.
Advisory:	Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course provides fundamental skills in Adobe Lightroom and Photoshop that artists, gallery personnel, photographers, and fashion industry workers need to manage image and video files for print and web purposes. Topics include file import from cameras and devices, file format, file size, and file management. It also covers Photoshop editing of image files, video files, and Photoshop processing workflows. Drawing in Adobe Photoshop using brushes and layers is introduced.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- use Lightroom catalogs to organize and archive files
- import files from various sources into Lightroom and Photoshop
- create digital slides of artwork for portfolio and competition purposes
- manage file formats and sizes for varied imaging purposes
- perform basic editing for image improvement in Lightroom and Photoshop
- use Photoshop brushes and other tools to draw for fashion and imaging purposes
- prepare files for print or web purposes

ART 300 Drawing and Composition I

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Drawing Fundamentals (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100006)
Prerequisite:	None.
Advisory:	Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable:	CSU; UC
General Education:	AA/AS Area I; CSU Area C1
C-ID:	C-ID ARTS 110
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces observational drawing and composition. It emphasizes the ability to perceive and define both positive and negative shapes, contour, volume, space and value using a variety of drawing media and subject matter. It focuses on the clarity of observational skills and the ability to translate three-dimensional form and space into two-dimensional drawings. Both linear and atmospheric perspective will be studied and applied to drawings. The development of dynamic compositions will be studied through the various arrangements of subject matter. Both historical and contemporary drawing practice will be explored. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- create a portfolio of finished drawings in a variety of drawing media that demonstrates the ability to observe and record the characteristics of simple and complex objects using both line and value.
- apply principles of design and linear and/or atmospheric perspective to observational drawings.
- critique artworks using correct terminology related to drawing concepts, materials, and techniques.
- identify a personal style and begin an initial investigation of the issues of content.
- examine the variety of styles and roles of drawing within different cultures and time periods, ranging from representational to abstract.

ART 302 Drawing and Composition II

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Drawing Fundamentals (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100006)
Prerequisite:	ART 300 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
C-ID:	C-ID ARTS 205
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course further develops the skills and concepts introduced in ART 300. It covers the relationships between formal elements such as line, shape, color, texture, value, perspective, and spatial relationships. It emphasizes the creative use of materials. It also includes critiques of student, historical, and contemporary works of art. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- demonstrate intermediate level technical skills and concepts in drawing
- investigate methods toward the achievement of personal expression and self direction
- critically evaluate one's own artwork and the works of others
- design works utilizing principles of composition
- invent new methods for incorporating color theory within each artwork

ART 304 Figure Drawing I

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Figure Studies (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100008)
Prerequisite:	ART 300 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
C-ID:	C-ID ARTS 200
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces and explores the human structure based on the history and traditions of the human figure in art. Skills are developed by critically analyzing, drawing, and composing the undraped figure in a representational manner from direct observation. A variety of media are introduced in the exploration of the human form. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- analyze and discuss images of the human form found in art works throughout history.
- analyze, compose, and construct a variety of figure drawing skills with respect to using line, shape, value, and color.
- demonstrate and apply a variety of drawing techniques to describe anatomy, proportion, and planar structure of the human form.
- demonstrate control over various methods and media of drawing the figure.
- discuss, critically assess, and evaluate depictions of the human form.

ART 305 Figure Drawing II

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Figure Studies (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100008)
Prerequisite:	ART 304 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	ART 312
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course continues the study of the human figure in art as begun in ART 304. The pursuit of more complex strategies and skills are developed by critically analyzing, drawing, and composing the undraped figure. The use of color tools and the development of personal style are emphasized. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- assess, evaluate, and discuss depictions of the human figure found in art history.
- demonstrate through drawing a greater knowledge of human anatomy, proportion, and gesture.
- demonstrate the use of color in a variety of drawing applications and color medias.
- analyze and respond to one's own artwork and the work of others during individual and group critique(s).
- develop a subjective and personal style based on historical theory and concepts.
- create a portfolio of drawings where the figure is the focus and context.

ART 306 Facial Expression and Anatomy

Same As:	ARTNM 320
Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	ART 300 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	ART 304
Transferable:	CSU
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course covers human facial expression and anatomy using live models, anatomical references, and imagination. Issues of expression as it relates to skeletal and muscular anatomy are addressed through a series of projects. This course is not open to students who have taken ARTNM 320.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- draw the human skull in order to understand the three-dimensional form.
- apply facial muscular structure to the skull.
- evaluate the muscular code for universal facial expressions.
- create the human head with varying expressions using 2D media.
- create meaningful exaggerations of expression using 2D media.

- evaluate the muscles and muscle dynamics responsible for facial expression.

ART 312 Portrait Drawing

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	ART 300 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	ART 304
Transferable:	CSU; UC
General Education:	AA/AS Area I
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces the study of the human image in portraiture. Emphasis is on developing the skills needed to portray specific individuals rather than a generalized image of people. Included are the history and traditions of portraiture, the use of color media, and the development of personal style. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- assess, evaluate, and discuss human portraiture found in art history.
- describe human facial anatomy and plane structure.
- create an accurate likeness of an individual using a variety of techniques and materials.
- develop a subjective and personal style based on historical theory and concepts.
- create a portfolio of artworks where the human portrait is the focus and context.

ART 314 Introduction to Illustration

Same As:	ARTNM 370
Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Applied Drawing (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100007)
Prerequisite:	ART 300 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course is a survey of the history of illustration, defining areas of specialization and the illustrator's role in visual communication. The appropriate use of materials, tools and methods is evaluated. Illustration is analyzed as a method of visual problem solving through a series of projects with varied applications. This course is not open to students who have taken ARTNM 370.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- describe the history of illustration.
- examine areas of specialization of illustration and analyze required skills for illustrators.
- apply illustration techniques with a variety of media.
- produce a range of visual styles.
- evaluate the appropriate style and media choice in terms of client, audience and print methods.

ART 317 Character Design

Same As:	ARTNM 372
Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Applied Drawing (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100007)
Prerequisite:	ART 302 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	ART 304 and ARTNM 302
Transferable:	CSU
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces the visual development of characters based on archetypal patterns. Students will consider backstory, personality, and physical attributes. Fundamental drawing skills such as shape, form, anatomical structure, and motion will be included. Both digital and traditional media are applied. It also covers the graphical development of characters for animation, games, comics, graphic novels, children's books, and illustrated novels. It is not open to students who have completed ARTNM 372.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- develop a comprehensive process for designing characters including character profile, reference, thumbnails, and refinements.
- quickly concept multiple variations for a character including body type, head structure, facial expression, motion studies, and costume.
- differentiate multiple characters based on clear, definable silhouettes.
- develop costumes for a character based on time period, environment, and social class.
- produce accurate turnarounds for a character.

ART 320 Design: Fundamentals

General Education:	AA/AS Area I; CSU Area C1

C-ID: C-ID ARTS 100
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course focuses on the fundamentals of design, establishing a foundation for intermediate and advanced art courses as well as developing a visual and verbal vocabulary essential to understanding and appreciating art and design esthetics. Design principles are applied through a series of studio projects that are derived from the study of both historical schools of art as well as contemporary theory. The elements of line, shape, form, spatial relationships, value, and color are analyzed in concert with their use by artists throughout history. Projects utilize a wide range of tools, media, and presentation techniques. This course is not open to students who have completed ARTNM 310

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- design and create compositions using the principles of organization: unity, balance, harmony-variety, rhythm, pattern, proportion/scale, movement, and economy.
- build a body of work using visual gestalt theory and elements of design: line, shape, value, color, texture, and space.
- analyze works of fine art and design to critically assess components of subject, form, and content.
- compare and contrast historical works of art as they relate to an overall formal assessment of design.
- investigate modern and contemporary works of art to compare their formal similarities and differences from historical works.
- measure one's own work in terms of premise and concepts of design and their relationship to content.

ART 323 Design: Color Theory

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite: ART 320 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable: CSU; UC
C-ID: C-ID ARTS 270
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course studies the principles, theories, and application of additive and subtractive color in two dimensions. It includes the use of color systems found in major historical and contemporary artistic styles. A portfolio of design projects in applied color systems is required. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- compare and analyze historical and contemporary use of color in relation to color systems.
- distinguish the use of color models, including color relationships and color proportions.
- utilize stylistic technique that indicate an understanding of color application in art history.
- explain how color is perceived physiologically, psychologically, symbolically, and intuitively.
- organize materials, vehicles, binders, opaque and transparent media, color mixing, and color interactions.
- analyze the function of color in design with regard to harmonies, contrast, emphasis, balance, form, space, light, rhythm, and movement.
- integrate principles from additive and subtractive color theories to compose aesthetic designs, images, or compositions.

ART 324 Collage and Assemblage

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite: None.
Advisory: Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable: CSU; UC
General Education: AA/AS Area I; CSU Area C1
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course investigates the creation of artworks using the technique of collage and assemblage (the process of assembling and adhering diverse materials and found objects onto another surface). The history of collage and assemblage and basic design theories are introduced. Development of a personal visual style is encouraged. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- create collage and assemblage artworks based on found and/or chosen materials.
- organize the use of basic design elements such as line, shape, value, color, texture, space, and composition to create collage and assemblage artworks.
- develop expressive content through the manipulation of collage and assemblage techniques.
- describe historical and contemporary developments, trends, materials, and approaches in collage and assemblage.
- assess and critique collage and assemblage artworks in group, individual, and written contexts using relevant critique formats, concepts, and terminology.
- create a diverse collection of visual elements, such as fragments, scraps, or found objects to build a personal clip-art file for collage and assemblage projects.
- construct a portfolio of collage and assemblage artworks for presentation.

ART 327 Painting I

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Painting \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009\)
Prerequisite: ART 300 or 320 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable: CSU; UC
C-ID: C-ID ARTS 210
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course introduces basic techniques and materials of painting. It includes the survey of historical and contemporary development of painting with emphasis on perceptual and technical skills, such as, color theory, paint mixing and technique, and creative responses to materials and subject matter. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- create paintings that demonstrate a working knowledge of the physical properties of painting materials.
- identify, discuss, and integrate elements and principles of design into the painting process.
- evaluate and apply the basic principles of color theory to painting projects.
- construct and prepare various supports and/or substrates for painting projects.
- develop expressive content through manipulation of mark, color, value, and composition.
- describe historical and contemporary developments, trends, materials, and approaches in painting.
- assess and critique paintings in group, individual, and written contexts using relevant critique formats, concepts, and terminology.
- safely handle and use studio painting materials and equipment.

ART 328 Painting II

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Painting (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009)
Prerequisite:	ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course expands on the basic painting techniques and materials introduced in ART 327. It encourages the development of artistic style and general and specific criticism found in the history of painting. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- develop a personal painting style.
- express more fully and in greater detail the techniques of painting.
- use principles of design and color theory in painting projects.
- apply historical, contemporary, and theoretical approaches in painting projects.
- assess and critique paintings in group, individual, and written contexts using relevant critique formats, concepts, and terminology.
- construct and document an initial portfolio of paintings for professional presentation.

ART 329 Painting III

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Painting (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009)
Prerequisite:	ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course further develops the skills and concepts introduced in ART 327. Included is the survey of historical and contemporary styles in painting as this pertains to the development of individual style and self expression. Topics may include; post-modern expression, such as image and text; mixed-media; and combining varied styles and techniques within a single artwork. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- demonstrate advanced skills in painting techniques using a variety of materials and subjects.
- evaluate major historical and contemporary trends, using correct terminology related to concepts, materials and techniques in painting.
- analyze the relationship of using 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional sources as content and subject in painting.
- construct and document an initial portfolio of artworks for professional presentation.

ART 330 Mural Painting

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	ART 300 or 320 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	ART 327 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course provides a survey of mural painting as a public art form. It introduces the historical use of mural painting and examines the process of creating a mural painting by analyzing a site, researching, planning, and executing murals in public spaces, and working collaboratively with others. Field trips may be required to execute the work on location.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- distinguish the historical use of mural painting by different cultures throughout the world.
- work collaboratively with others to execute a mural as a public art form.
- evaluate and record the process of creating a mural painting from surveying the site to executing the work.
- apply and describe the planning stages in a large-scale mural project.
- adapt the appropriate media and techniques for each chosen mural site.

ART 336 Watercolor Painting

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Painting (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009)
Prerequisite:	ART 300 or 320 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces painting with transparent aqueous media and techniques focusing on watercolor and gouache. It emphasizes historical and contemporary development, technical skill, color relationship(s), and self-expression using aqueous media in painting. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- describe major historical and contemporary trends in painting focusing on aqueous media.
- demonstrate skills in basic painting materials and techniques focusing on aqueous media.
- evaluate and apply the basic principles of color theory in aqueous painting technique.
- integrate elements and principles of design into the painting process focusing on aqueous media.
- prepare supports and/or substrates for painting in the aqueous media.

ART 337 Intermediate Watercolor Painting

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Painting (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100009)
Prerequisite:	ART 336 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course continues the study of the aqueous medium in painting begun in ART 336. More complex methods, concepts, varying approaches, and techniques using the aqueous medium are developed. Personal style is emphasized. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- demonstrate advanced skills with a variety of materials and subjects, using aqueous painting techniques.
- evaluate major historical and contemporary trends, using correct terminology related to concepts, materials, and techniques in aqueous painting.
- develop a subjective and personal style based on the concepts, materials, and techniques of aqueous painting.
- analyze and respond to one's own artwork and the work of others during individual and group critique(s).
- construct and document a portfolio of aqueous paintings for professional presentation.

ART 339 Integrating Digital Media with Traditional Media I

Same As:	ARTNM 331
Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	None.
Transferable:	CSU
General Education:	AA/AS Area I
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course combines the materials and techniques used in both new media technology and traditional art practices. It explores a wide variety of ideas, tools, and resources. Topics include history, theory, and practice surrounding digital and traditional image generation, image manipulation, image transfer, and material exploration. The course emphasizes developing unique forms of portfolio quality projects demonstrating new approaches and methods of integrating digital media with traditional media forms.

This course is not available to students who have taken ARTNM 331.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- combine materials and techniques used in both new media technology and traditional art practices.
- create successful compositions using knowledge of history, theory, and practice surrounding digital and traditional image generation.
- create successful compositions using knowledge of history, theory, and practice surrounding digital and traditional image manipulation.
- create successful compositions using knowledge of history, theory, and practice surrounding digital and traditional image transfer.
- generate dynamic portfolio-quality projects, which demonstrate new approaches and methods of merging digital media with traditional media.

ART 361 Printmaking: Survey

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Printmaking (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100010)
Prerequisite:	None.
Transferable:	CSU; UC
C-ID:	C-ID ARTS 220
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course covers various printmaking techniques, including but not limited to: relief printing, (wood, linoleum, collagraph, and rubber), monotype, stencil and/or silkscreen printing, intaglio (drypoint etching), and basic pronto plate lithography. Different artists and/or visual examples are discussed each semester. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- design and compose works of art using the various printmaking techniques taught in class.
- safely handle and maintain print lab equipment.
- use correct techniques for specific printmaking process being employed.
- analyze historical printmaking styles and techniques from various cultures and time periods.
- critique artworks using correct terminology related to concepts, materials, and techniques of printmaking.
- describe and develop conceptual structures of art within a specific printmaking process.
- create a portfolio of multiples demonstrating a broad range of printmaking techniques.

ART 365 Printmaking II

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Printmaking (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100010)
Prerequisite:	ART 361 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable:	CSU; UC (effective Fall 2021)
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course covers practices in various printmaking techniques. It expands on the four basic techniques taught in ART 361: relief printing, intaglio, screen printing, and lithography. It also encourages the development of a personal style and the creation of a cohesive body of work using those techniques. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- design and create bodies of work using various printmaking techniques taught in class such as intaglio, relief and serigraph.
- develop and use advanced techniques for intaglio, relief, screen printing, or lithography.
- explore new techniques that can apply to contemporary practices.
- analyze developments of new processes in contemporary printmaking and apply to a variety of techniques.
- apply principles of design to printmaking images.
- develop a signature printmaking style.
- cite different historical influences and describe their impact on contemporary printmaking.
- analyze specific periods of historical printmaking and apply concepts to contemporary practice.
- create a completed body of work within sets of multiples demonstrating an understanding of the uses of specific printmaking techniques.

ART 370 Three Dimensional Design

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	None.
Advisory:	Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable:	CSU; UC
General Education:	CSU Area C1
C-ID:	C-ID ARTS 101
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This foundation course covers an analysis of historical and contemporary designs, primarily concerned with the visual dialogue between form and space, with focus on visual sensitivity for three-dimensional composition. Line, plane, and volume are utilized to construct 3-D forms using a variety of materials which may include but is not limited to clay, metal, wood, fibers, mixed media, plaster, and paper.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- identify and understand the formal elements and organizing principles of three-dimensional art.
- independently produce objects, forms, and problem-solving projects that successfully incorporate the basic elements and organizing principles of three-dimensional art.
- discuss, describe, analyze, and critique three-dimensional works of art through references to the formal elements and principles of design.
- make individual aesthetic decisions and judgments related to their own design work.
- translate ideas and visual experience into tactile forms objects using both formal and conceptual approaches.
- recognize the presence of specific design elements and principles in works of art as well as in the surrounding everyday physical world, throughout history and across cultures.
- compose in three dimensions and work with a variety of media which may include but is not limited to clay, wood, metal, paint, plaster, paper, fibers, mixed media, in an appropriate and safe manner.

ART 371 Foundry Casting for Sculpture

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Sculpture (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100011)
Prerequisite:	None.
Transferable:	CSU
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course introduces the techniques, metallurgy, and practice of casting bronze and aluminum for sculpture using the sand molding method. Emphasis is placed on historical examples, design, techniques, vocabulary, and safety. Patterns are utilized directly with sand to create sculptures in metal. Different artists and topics are covered each semester.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- create individual art works through a process of conception, design, execution, finish and presentation.
- describe and utilize tools and technology (such as forms, molds, crucible, melting furnace, and metal pouring equipment) to create art works.
- analyze and apply safety related chemicals and metal working equipment.
- organize a foundry heat and process information/tasks both orally and in written formats.
- critique art work in both oral and written formats.
- discuss the historical and theoretical aspects of both design and techniques in art metal casting.
- describe experimental methods of metal casting, fabrication, and finish of cast art works.
- draw blueprint sketches of the artwork to be cast.
- demonstrate the proper technique for applying patinas.

ART 372 Sculpture

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Sculpture (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100011)
Prerequisite:	None.
Advisory:	Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340
Transferable:	CSU; UC
General Education:	CSU Area C1
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This is an introductory course in sculpture. It covers expressive use of form, color, and various sculptural methods, such as additive and subtractive media using clay and plaster, and constructive media like wood and steel; found objects and other materials may also be explored. This course utilizes a problem-solving format in order to develop knowledge of technical process, formal vocabulary, and individual expression. Both historical and contemporary approaches in developing form and content are included. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- create objects in various three-dimensional media.
- display basic skills and craftsmanship in creating sculptural works of art using the formal principles of design and visual elements.
- identify historical and contemporary sculpture as well as influences of non-Western sculpture.
- apply formal design and sculpture terminology to critique and evaluate artworks.

ART 373 Intermediate Sculpture

Units:	3
Hours:	36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family:	Sculpture (http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100011)
Prerequisite:	ART 372 with a grade of "C" or better
Advisory:	Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable:	CSU; UC
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This is an intermediate course in the practice of the expressive use of form in three-dimensional space. It utilizes traditional additive and subtractive media, as well as constructive media, and other contemporary materials. This course utilizes a problem-solving format in order to develop knowledge of technical process, formal vocabulary, and individual expression. It examines both historical and contemporary approaches in developing form and content.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- utilize compositional principles as they apply to three-dimensional form and space.
- discuss and demonstrate his/her knowledge of traditional and contemporary sculptural techniques.
- compare and contrast properties of sculpture form and space.
- develop his/her creative abilities and individual expression through problem-solving assignments.
- further develop the ability to generate related visual problems based on a variety of source material.

ART 374 Sculpture Lab

Units:	1 - 2
Hours:	54 - 108 hours LAB
Prerequisite:	None.
Corequisite:	ART 324, 370, 371, 372, 373, or 375
Transferable:	CSU; UC (Credit granted only if concurrently enrolled in ART 372, 373 or 375)
Catalog Date:	June 1, 2021

This course offers laboratory experience to assist in completing complex sculpture projects. It focuses on the development of a personal creative vision furthering technical skills and complex problem solving.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- analyze the relationship between content and mechanical skills in plaster fabrication to include composition, form, carving, constructing, molding, and finishing.
- exhibit skills in wax fabrication for bronze casting.
- exhibit safe and proper use of necessary mixed media equipment such as a band saw, drill press, grinder, and welders.
- exhibit skills in clay fabrication to include composition, form, molding, constructing, and finishing.
- analyze and select appropriate materials and techniques necessary to explore personal artistic vision.

ART 375 Figure Sculpture

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Figure Studies \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100008\)
Prerequisite: None.
Advisory: ART 304
Transferable: CSU; UC
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course introduces figure sculpture, using the live undraped model as reference. Concepts of human anatomy are emphasized through the use of quick gestural studies and sustained sculptural projects. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- construct sculptures of human gestures using ceramic clay.
- construct a free standing figure sculpture using an armature.
- analyze human anatomical structure through accurate representational form.
- analyze human anatomical structure using the figure to give form to personal thoughts and ideas.
- evaluate work by applying contemporary and traditional figurative sculpture concepts.

ART 376 Functional Sculpture

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Sculpture \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100011\)
Prerequisite: None.
Advisory: Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340
Transferable: CSU
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course covers the hands-on basics of metal forming, design principles and materials used for sculpture, and functional art forms with emphasis on the use of the anvil and the gas forge. Topics include hand forging metal techniques, furniture and sculpture design, finishing processes, and the use of patinas.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- design and execute sculptural concepts in the medium using the anvil and the gas forge.
- apply traditional and non-traditional metal working techniques to 3-dimensional functional and nonfunctional art forms.
- demonstrate the proper and safe use of a gas forge, the anvil and other related metal working equipment.
- demonstrate skill in the blacksmith techniques such as punching, twisting, drawing out, and upsetting.

ART 390 Ceramics

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Ceramics-Hybrid \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100013\)
Prerequisite: None.
Transferable: CSU; UC
General Education: CSU Area C1
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course is a beginning ceramics class in hand building and throwing techniques. Elementary clay construction including pinch pot, coil, slab, and slump molds are covered as well as an introduction to the potter's wheel. Different methods of glazing and firing are studied. The history and theory of ceramics are examined.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- identify basic ceramic terminology
- distinguish between craft and fine art
- incorporate skills to build sculptural objects in clay
- create functional and non-functional ceramic work employing proficient technique
- differentiate and apply principles of design and theory to ceramic work
- research ceramic artwork and history

ART 391 Intermediate Ceramics

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Ceramics-Hybrid \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100013\)
Prerequisite: ART 390 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable: CSU; UC
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This is an intermediate course in wheel-throwing and sculpture techniques. It explores the technical and creative processes of ceramic pottery making and sculpture including surface treatment and various firing processes. Focus is placed on an in-depth examination of contemporary ceramics. Different artists, techniques, and projects are explored each semester.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- demonstrate skills of wheel-throwing and hand- building ceramic techniques
- investigate the history and theory of ceramics
- create ceramic sculpture and pottery
- examine and integrate design, concept, and aesthetics in ceramic sculpture
- critique ceramic art work

ART 397 Alternative Firing Processes in Ceramics

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Ceramics-Hybrid \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100013\)
Prerequisite: ART 390 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable: CSU; UC
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course covers alternative firing processes in ceramics which include raku, wood, soda, saggar, sawdust, and pit firing. Ceramics is explored through hand-building and wheel-throwing techniques. Glaze formulation for the firing processes is included. Emphasis is placed on in-depth examinations of the history of kilns and firing techniques. Different firing processes are explored each semester. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- describe characteristics of alternative kilns and firing processes.
- create and produce artwork in clay specific to alternative firing techniques.
- select clay and glazes pertinent to alternative firing processes.
- critique ceramic art work.
- practice kiln maintenance.
- demonstrate safe kiln loading, unloading, and firing practices.

ART 398 Ceramic Murals and Tiles

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Ceramics-Hybrid \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100013\)
Prerequisite: ART 390 with a grade of "C" or better
Transferable: CSU
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course introduces ceramic mural and tile methods and techniques. It explores the technical and creative process of site-specific mural and tile making including bas relief, press molds, various surface treatments, and installation methods. Focus is placed on an in-depth examination of the history of ceramic tiles and murals.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- design artworks that are site-specific.
- research art history as it applies to projects.
- draw and design murals/tiles before producing them in clay.
- create ceramic tiles and murals.
- experiment with different surface treatments for murals.
- apply various installation techniques.

ART 420 Film Making

Units: 2
Hours: 18 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite: None.
Transferable: CSU; UC (ART 420 & 422 combined: maximum credit - one course)
General Education: CSU Area C1
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course involves completing a series of short, individual and/or group projects, focusing on various methods and techniques that can be used to create films/videos which are visually sophisticated and conceptually interesting. Work by contemporary and historically-significant filmmakers is also covered.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- identify and discuss technical aspects of film making, comparing contemporary and historical perspectives
- identify and apply the formal elements of film making, comparing contemporary and historical perspectives
- differentiate between various types of lighting and demonstrate the relationships between lighting and form
- demonstrate distinction between subject movement, camera movement, and mechanical movement
- apply the scriptwriting principles of character uniqueness and development, subtext, conflict, content, and symbolism
- discuss and demonstrate major theories of film editing, comparing contemporary and historical perspectives

ART 430 Art and Children

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Prerequisite: None.
Advisory: Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable: CSU
General Education: AA/AS Area I; CSU Area C1
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course introduces the use of artists' materials and techniques appropriate for teaching art to children. It includes the study of art history, including various movements (ism's) and concepts in creating artwork. This course covers the process of creating lesson plans, doing preparatory work for presenting art projects, and creation of drawings, paintings, and sculptures. It also covers how to identify and properly use, maintain, store, and clean commonly used art materials. Topics include proper identification, utilization, and presentation of basic art principles, and an understanding of age-specific capabilities in children. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- identify varying techniques for handling common art materials.
- develop skills and techniques to communicate basic art principles.
- organize an appropriate sequential plan for art education in the elementary schools.
- analyze age-specific capabilities of children in terms of the visual arts.
- propose appropriate art resources for use with specific groups of students.
- investigate a variety of cultural and age-specific methods of expression.
- assess the historical and social uses of art.

ART 440 Artists' Materials and Techniques

Units: 3
Hours: 36 hours LEC; 54 hours LAB
Course Family: Studio Art and Practice \(http://arc.losrios.edu/course-families#id_100014\)
Prerequisite: None.
Advisory: Eligible for ENGRD 310 or ENGRD 312 AND ENGWR 300; OR ESLR 340 AND ESLW 340.
Transferable: CSU
General Education: AA/AS Area I
Catalog Date: June 1, 2021

This course focuses on analyzing and developing artists' mediums and techniques. Historical information about various materials and their relationship to personal imagery and style are emphasized. The composition of pigments, their origins, and various binders are explored. The construction of various artists' substrates and supports as well as the techniques of matting and framing art work are also covered. A supply fee may be required for this course. Field trips may be required.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- categorize a broad sampling of artists' materials and techniques of historical, traditional, and modern practices.
- analyze the composition and use of artists' materials and techniques focusing on two-dimensional mediums.
- compare the technological advances of artists' materials and techniques throughout history.
- relate vocabulary and techniques to a variety of artists' mediums.
- explore the process of creating artists' materials and techniques based on historical, traditional, and modern practices.
